How Our Sponsors Benefit

Highly visible marketing on a cheerful event for positive brand feelings

Reach a specific audience that plan their year around the rodeo and align your brand with a premier event in both Colac and Victoria.

High Visibility before, during and after the event

With a combination of digital media, event signage, rodeo announcements and championship trophy rights, your company will reach our audience in every facet of the event from the start of your sponsorship to months after the rodeo has finished.

Access to Thousands of new customers

Sponsoring a rodeo offers extensive brand exposure through event signage, promotional materials, and media coverage. The sponsor's logo and messaging will be prominently displayed and all sponsors will receive access to our email database for direct advertising.

Reach the Community at a truly local event

Rodeo events often have deep roots in local communities. By sponsoring a rodeo, a company can demonstrate its commitment to supporting local traditions and cultures, enhancing its reputation and goodwill within the community

Product Demonstration to a captured audience

Rodeos offer an excellent platform for sponsors to showcase their products or services directly to consumers. Whether through booths, demonstrations, or giveaways, sponsors can create hands-on experiences that leave a lasting impression on potential customers.
